OYSTER BAY, L. I., Sept. 2.—A sensation was created today when the public got its first knowledge of an incident at President Roosevelt's home during yesterday evening.

An unknown man, well-armed, tried three times to pass the guards about the President's house. On each occasion the man was stopped and finally put under arrest. There is little doubt that the man would have made an attempt on the life of President had he succeeded in reaching the house.

When examined today it was apparent the man is insane. The guards and officials at the President's home have little to say of the incident beyond admitting the attempts to pass the guards. The President gives the affair little attention.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 3.—The Reliance established her supremacy over the Shamrock III. today by winning the third race of the series a full three miles ahead.

The Reliance crossed the starting line four seconds in the lead and kept her winning pace to the outer mark, which she turned ten minutes ahead of the Shamrock.

On the run home a fog hung over the course at intervals and marred the race from the sightseers' standpoint. The Reliance was seen to be hauling steadily ahead and finally crossed the line with the Shamrock three miles in the rear.
